

The Moratorium Peace Rally, Washington D.C., 1969.

Walter Cronkite gets ready for a sail aboard his beloved boat, Wynije, 1989.

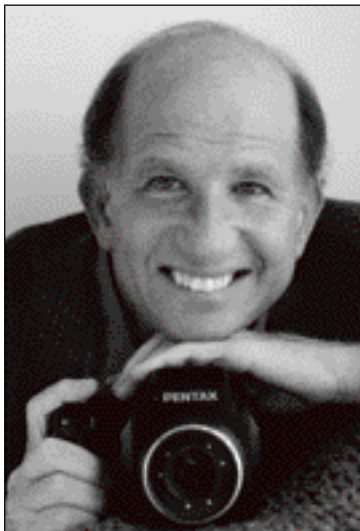

The Beatles at Shea, 1965.

Nationally acclaimed Photo Journalist

Peter Simon

Presents:

Through the Lens: A Life filled with History, Friendships and Addiction

Self Portrait, 2005.

For over 40 years, Peter Simon has documented some of the world's most historic events from the protest-filled 1960's, hippie communes, nude beaches and the New Age Movement to the greatest names in Rock n' Roll, Reggae, Pop music; the action of Major League Baseball and the majesty of Martha's Vineyard.

Through his multimedia presentation, Simon speaks honestly about his photographic art, privileged background, alternative lifestyle explorations, and an addictive personality that finally got the better of him and affected his relationships with family and friends. He thoughtfully discusses his humiliating run-ins with the law; harrowing stays at various jails and rehabilitation centers; and most importantly, his present day to day commitment to recovery from alcohol. This is a truly no-holds-barred excursion through his days of pot and roses; and on to recovery road, a road he now walks upon with grace.

"Peter has lived a very intriguing life. It's had some peaks and valleys. It's the trek through those peaks and valley's that is unique, magical and thoughtful."

~ Alan Dershowitz

Attorney and Harvard Law School Professor

"My brother Peter is able to tell his tale with more honest insight than I could have imagined. He is without defensiveness and he laughs at himself when criticized; just as he also enjoys a big fat compliment."

~ Carly Simon

Singer & Songwriter

Bob Marley on his BMW, Jamaica, 1976.

Day tripping at Vermont Commune, 1970.

James Taylor Posing for the "One Man Dog" album cover at the Tree Frog Farm in Vermont, fall 1972.

Bob Dylan on solo piano plays to a packed crowd at Kezar Stadium in San Francisco, 1975.